Question of the Week
October 27, 2024

All catechesis flows from the liturgy nothing is as important as what happens at the Sunday Mass. Christ is present in four fold ways, in the bread and wine, the Presider, the word of God and the community gathered. But for a lot of people the Sunday mass and readings and homily goes too quickly. In order for people to think back on the mass, we will have the "Question of the Week". The purpose of the "Question of the Week" is to bring together people of all ages to learn about and share their faith. The question will be relating to one of the readings from Sunday's Mass. The question will allow different ministry groups and families to break open the word and share faith throughout the week.

Question of the Week:

Adults: What does it mean for you to "see"? Are there blind spots in your life?

Children: What would you like to ask Jesus for?

- Reading 1: Jer 31:7-9
- Reading 2: Heb 5:1-6
- Gospel: Mk 10:46-52

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus asks Bartimaeus: "What do you want me to do for you?" And he answers, "Master, I want to see." Let us ask Jesus for the grace to "see" our brothers and sisters who are in need.

Have you considered answering the call to help serve those in need by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

AIDS Spiritual Reflections

The prayer of petition reminds us that disciples can do nothing on their own without Jesus' help. At times we are doing our faith by reaching out to those around us in need; at other times we are being our faith by taking time to let our God be present to us in prayer.

AIDS Fact:

For those of us who are too young to remember, the scope of that suffering can be difficult to comprehend. According to the AIDS research group amfAR, more than 319,000 people in the United States died of complications related to H.I.V. and AIDS between 1981 and 1995.
